3. Bell P 173

- 1683 -

Whereas Oliver & John of the Tandragh in the County of Armagh Esq, has conveyed a very considerable tract within the parish of Ligo, and Whereas the said Oliver & John now does, and for years inlands, frequently to repairs to the parish church of Ligo afforded: And having a prospect in case of John Maly, to make a settlement for some one thereof within the aforesaid parish: It is therefore adjudged fit and right, that the Oliver & John should be allowed a convenient quantity of ground within the said church of Ligo, for the erecting of a decent seat to the use of himself and family: Pursuant Whereunto, the Minister, Church Wardens, & parishioners, have concluded unanimously, that the said Oliver & John shall have a seat in the said church, he building it, and for ever hereafter repairing it, at his or his heirs own proper cost and charge.
 And the present incumbent doth for him & his Successors, (what in him lyeth) grant and appoint, all that space of ground contained in the Northeast angle of the Chancel, as it is now enclosed in a seat formerly designed for the Minister, for the said Oliver & John to erect his seat on: Provided, that the next seat for the said church of the same dimension with the former, lying between the said Oliver & John's seat and the pulpit on the same side, be for ever without interruption preserved & continued to the use of the incumbent, his Successors: And do with our consent hereunto we set our hand the 9th of April 1683
