An In Memorium Gift.

Mr. James M'Dowell and his sister, Miss Sarah M'Dowell, of Killicomaine have decided to erect at the Pulpit a richly carved balustrade beside the steps leading to the Pulpit, and a similar handrail on the opposite wall in memory of their father and mother, who were most highly respected parishioners. This is a most thoughtful and valuable gift.

The Parish Church.

The Renovation of the Church is now almost completed and has proved a great success. It is seldom that a Church receives at the same time such a successful renovation, both inside The outward appearance of Seagoe Church has always been a disappointment compared with the fine interior. The fact that portion of the exterior walls and the whole of the tower were dashed and cemented and portion neatly pointed suggested a "patchiness" which spoiled its appearance. The question which had to be decided was-Would the stonework of the outer walls and tower if deprived of their coating of plaster be sufficiently good for pointing. This could only be ascertained by stripping the walls and when this was done it was found that the stonework was good. It was then decided by the Committee to get the walls pointed. The effect has proved to be very good, and the tower especially is now an ornament to the Church and to The inside of the Church has the district. been transformed. The walls, instead of being distempered as formerly, have been oil-painted in a cream colour. The walls of the Chancel are coloured a light green. The dark staining has been washed off the pews and it is now possible to note the fine natural graining of the The pews have received two coats of varnish. The heavy brass gasolier has been removed from the Chancel and a system of electric flood-lighting has been installed there instead. An electric light has also been fitted over each door leading into the Church. A brick flue was discovered leading from the old Vestry, and the bricks have been removed and stonework substituted. The stone at the West Door, which had become greatly worn in the course of over 100 years, has been removed and replaced by a cement step.

Our Sunday Schools.

£52 7 6

It has been decided to close the Morning and Afternoon Sunday Schools of the Parish for six Sundays. They will be closed for the four Sundays in July and the first two in August. They will re-open (D.V.) on Sunday, August 16th. The Closing of the Schools should mean a fuller attendance of both teachers and children at the Services in the Parish Church. When our Blessed Lord heard the voices of the children in the Temple he said, "If these should hold their peace the very stones would cry out." The Psalmist of old said, "A day in Thy Courts is better than a thousand." Our renovated Church should be a fresh call to truer and deeper worship on the part of our people.

A Generous Gift.

The Committee of the Mothers' Union has offered to place in all the pews of the Church a covering of fine felt, and the gift has been most gratefully accepted by the Vestry.

Sympathy.

Our deep sympathy is given to those among us whose homes have been visited by the Angel Mrs. Elizabeth Reid passed away after a long and tedious illness which she bore with great patience. We express our sincere sympathy with Mr. George Reid, Miss M. Reid, Mr. J. H. Reid and her sister in their sad loss. The death of James Preston, of Lylo, was very sudden. He had never quite recovered from a gassing during his service in the War. passed away after a few hours of weakness. Our sincere condolence goes out to his bereaved wife and family, who were united to him by ties of A detachment of the British deep affection. Legion was present at his funeral, and the Union The death of Mrs. Jack covered his coffin. Dynes at an advanced age is also much lamented.

Visit of the Lord Bishop.

The Lord Bishop the Right Rev. Dr. M'Niece, has most kindly consented at very short notice to preach in the Parish Church at 11.30 a.m. Service on July 5th, when the Church will be re-opened after the Renovation.

A Splendid Excursion.

Our Excursion to Warrenpoint on Thursday, June 18th, was indeed a splendid success. The children, with their teachers, assembled at the Parish Church at 8.45 a.m., where a short service was held by the Rev. W. F. Hayes. Headed by the Seagoe C.L.B. Pipe Band, a long line of young people made their way to the station. It was a glorious morning. The sun shone out of a cloudless sky, and although the weather on preyous days had been unsettled no sign of rain appeared. The train for Warrenpoint steamed out of the station at 9.55 sharp, and we were soon flying through the beautiful green fields and along the fragrant hedges of the County Armagh. The excursionists were very numerous. A large number of adult tickets had been sold. journey to Warrenpoint took just an hour, and at 11 a.m. all dismounted from the train. The first refreshment was soon ready in the spacious Pavilion, and the good tea and tasty sandwiches were much enjoyed. During the day the excursionists went everywhere and enjoyed every moment of the day. Many of the younger and more active climbed to the Big Stone, others not quite so active got as far as Fiddler's Green. Nearly everybody bathed, some doing so three or four times during the day. The second refreshment was at 4.30, and again the Pavilion was crowded. After tea, all again went to the shore and got The return train left still further enjoyment. Warrenpoint at 8.40 p.m. and made a quick run to Portadown. The return march to the Church was headed by the Band. Great crowds were gathered in the streets. Arrived at the Church, the Rector thanked the Band for the help they had given, and the National Anthem was then sung, and hearty cheers given for the King and Queen Mary.

Seagoe Mothers' Union.

The members of the Mothers Union spent a most enjoyable afternoon at Milltown Rectory on Thursday, June 4th, on the very kind invitation of the Rev. J. F. J. Magill and Mrs. Magill. There is a very close link of friendship between the Milltown Mothers' Union and the Seagoe branch. The weather was fine and the members spent the evening playing games and admiring the delightful lake scenery of Milltown.

Regret.

We regret to hear of the death of the Rev. J. Dunlop, M.A., Rector of Lissan, near Cookstown, and formerly Curate of Drumcree. We sympathise very sincerely with Mrs. Dunlop in her bereavement.

Stormy Weather.

The latter part of June was of a trying character and the fierce thunderstorm of last week caused trepidation amongst many. Fortunately, there was no serious casualty in the parish, but the fatality at Ardmore was a sad result of the storm.

Seagoe Church—Special re-opening services are to be held in Seagoe Church on Sunday next. 9th inst. The preacher at both morning and evening services is to be the Rev. Thos. J. Welland, D.D., rector of St. Thomas, Belfast. With the exception of the west gable and tower, this church has been entirely rebuilt with the addition of a chancel (in the memory of the late Stewart Blacker, Esq., D.L., of Carrickblacker), and a south aisle. These improvements, resulting in a building of great beauty, have been carried out effectively from the plans of the Architect, Mr. Thos. Drew, R.H.A., by our respected townsmen, Messrs. Collen Bros.

Seagoe Church in 1816.—At a Vestry held March 31, 1812, a committee was appointed for 'building the new church of the parish of Seagoe.' It consisted of the following persons:-Rev. Richard Olpherts, Captain Woolsey, and Messrs. Robert Fivy, Woolsey Atkinson, Wm. Overend, David Ruddle, Joseph Malcomson, and Tolerton Lutton. When it was decided to erect a new church it was found impossible to build the larger edifice upon the old site—hallowed by its religious use for centuries—because the graves had been permitted to encroach upon the Southern and Western sides of the church, so that the earth was raised several feet above the floor. A new site, measuring above two roods and thirteen perches, in the adjoining townland of Upper Seagoe, and about forty perches distant, was granted by Lady Olivia Sparrow, acting as guardian for her son, Robert Acheson St. The deed of conveyance is dated Sparrow. March 2, 1814, and six days later, at a vestry held on March 8, the unanimous consent of the parishioners was given to the change of site; which was finally confirmed by an order of the Privy Council on June 21, 1814.
