HARVEST FESTIVAL SERVICES.

DISTRICT SERVICES.

Already these annual services of thanksgiving have taken place in Hacknahay, Carne, Bocombra, Levaghery, Drumgor, and as we go to Press preparations are being made to hold one in the Parochial Hall, Edenderry. As usual, the halls were all tastefully decorated by the Sunday School teachers concerned, and the outstanding feature this year is the fact that in the majority of these Halls the collection for the South American Missionary Society showed a definite increase on that of previous years.

We are deeply indebted to the following for so kindly preaching at these services:—the Rev. T. E. Beacom, B.D., and the Rev. G. A. Boulger, M.A., at Hacknahay; the Rev. G. W. Millington, M.A., and the Rev. G. F. G. Mann, M.A., at Carne; the Rev. J. F. O. Williams, B.A., and the Rev. J. Simmons, B.A., at Bocombra; the Rev. A. V. McCallin, B.D., and the Rev. H. A. Lillie, B.A., at Drumgor; the Rev. A. N. Parkinson, M.A., and the Rev. G. Long, B.A., at Levaghery.

THE PARISH CHURCH.

There was a splendid attendance at the morning service on October 20th, in spite of the very wet morning; the preacher was the Rev. J. Hobcroft, M.A., rector of Tartaraghan. The evening service was so well attended that extra seating had to be provided; the preacher was the Rev. H. Hughes, M.A., rector of Moirra. On Monday evening the Rev. J. Haddock, M.A., rector of Waringstown, was the preacher. The Rev. W. F. Hayes gave the address at the children's service at 3.30 p.m.

We congratulate the organist and choir once again on their superb rendering of the special music, which included two harvest anthems and a special setting of the Cantic "Benedicite, Omnia Opera," which was very appropriate and effective. Miss N. Montgomery sang the solo portion of the anthem on the Sunday evening and also on the Monday evening, her fine voice was heard to good effect.

We are grateful to all who sent gifts of fruit, flowers, corn, etc., and especially to Messrs. M'Gredy for flowers and the use of some of their decorative baskets, which made the task of decorating much easier. We also thank the faithful few who came along to arrange the decorations.

"SEAGOE'S FLORAL SPITFIRE.

"A floral Spitfire, with the inscription 'Not forgetting the boys from our School' is a feature of the harvest decorations in Carne Church Hall, Seagoe Parish, Portadown.

"It is about three feet long, and is made of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, with camouflage effects faithfully reproduced.

"Three of Carne Sunday School boys are serving with the R.A.F."

The above note appeared in a recent issue of the "Belfast Evening Telegraph."

MOTHERS' UNION.

The monthly meeting took place in Seagoe School on Thursday afternoon, October 10th, at 3.30 p.m., when about twenty-six members were present. It was decided not to black-out one of the school rooms, as had been proposed, as the cost would not justify this, but instead to carry on as was done last winter, on the second Thursday afternoon of each month at 3.30 p.m. In the absence of a special speaker the Rector gave a short address.

In another column reference is made to the splendid contribution of £100, which has been raised by the Mothers' Union for the New Rectory Building Fund.

The next monthly meeting will be held in Seagoe P.E.S. on Thursday, November 14th, at 3.30 p.m., when it is hoped a talk will be given by Nurse Holland.

SEAGOE BADMINTON CLUB.

We are glad to record that the above club is again functioning this winter, and we wish the members a successful and happy season.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of Superintendents and teachers will be held in the Parochial Hall, Edenderry, on Friday, November 22nd, at 8 p.m., when it is hoped that there will be representatives present from each of the nine Sunday Schools in the parish. There will be important matters to be discussed in connection with this vital work in our parish.

DISTRICT SERVICES FOR NOVEMBER.

Drumgor—Sunday, Nov. 10th, at 3 p.m.

Hacknahay—Sunday, Nov. 24th, at 3.30 p.m.

OBITUARY.

We regret the passing from our midst of three parishioners. Mrs. Armstrong had reached a good age and the call came to her very suddenly. Maureen Frazer was in her infancy. She has been spared the sin, sorrow and suffering of the world. Mr. Dundas met with a sad accident at Portadown Railway Station. For him, too, death was instantaneous, and he was spared suffering; he will be greatly missed in the locality. To all the bereaved we express our deep sympathy and pray that they may be comforted and strengthened in their sorrow by Him who says, "I am the resurrection and the Life."

C.L.B. NOTES.

The C.L.B. is carrying on in spite of the various difficulties. At this time of trouble and strife the work of our Church Lads' Brigade is more important than ever before. As we approach another winter of long, dark evenings, with the difficulties of the "black-out," it is essential that our youth should have their morale maintained. What better way is there of doing this than through the ranks of our own Parish organisation. The Brigade welcomes all lads of the Parish between the ages of 9 to 13, and 13 to 21. The programme of training consists of physical training, organised games, and it is hoped to include this year First Aid and A.R.P. The recreational side consists of table tennis, darts, boxing and various other games.

The most important feature of Brigade work is Discipline. Officers and N.C.O.'s are appointed to maintain Discipline in all things, whether training or games. This is of the utmost importance when we consider that the downfall of the Continental countries was partly due to the lack of discipline amongst the civilian population.

We appeal to the parents to support the Brigade. We would welcome a greater interest of the parish in our C.L.B.

The Brigade does not (as is sometimes thought) train lads for the Army.

The first and only object of the Church Lads' Brigade is the Advancement of Christ's Kingdom among boys.

many of our Lads are now serving in the Forces. And we are rightly proud of them. We know that their Brigade training will stand them in good stead. We also know that they have gone out well equipped to withstand every temptation, knowing as they do right from wrong, and determined to maintain the motto of the C.L.B.—Fight the Good Fight. We are pleased to see from time to time men who have passed through our ranks home on leave. Those now serving in the Forces include—Walter Currie, R.A.F., W. M'Loughlin, R.A.F., Cpl. Foster Shanks, R.A.F., Noel Johnston, R.A.F., D. Donaldson, R.A.F., Geo. Pentland, L. Lyttle, R.I.F., Jack Bateson, R.A.F., Jos. Simpson, R.A.F., Eric Burns, Hugh Robinson, R.A.F., Harry Jones, R.A.F., Gerald Vaughan, Royal Navy, Bertie Lynn, Arthur Mawhinney, H. Roche, R.A.F., Wm. Hamill, Jim Herron, R.A.F., Sergt. Bertie Herron, I.G., Sam M'Cabe, R.A.F., James Whiteside, R.A.F.

Our former Company Sergt.-Major now Cpl. Foster Shanks, R.A.F., was married during his recent leave. Foster was a staunch supporter of the Brigade and a very faithful member. He had joined the Brigade at its formation over 14 years ago. He passed through the Junior Training Corps and after entering the Senior ranks was quickly marked out for promotion. He was a most efficient N.C.O., and always set an excellent example to the younger boys. He also attended the Officers Training Course at Harrow and secured a first-class report. Each member of our Company wishes him every happiness. We were very pleased to learn that his Commanding Officer was also a former C.L.B. man.—(E.M.)

NEW RECTORY BUILDING FUND.

The Hon. Treasurer for the above gratefully acknowledges the receipt of the following subscriptions:—

Mr. T. H. Walker, Kernan	£1 0 0
Mr. D. Kane, Ballymacrandle	0 5 0
Mrs. S. Guy, Derryvore	0 5 0
Mr. B. Kilpatrick, Lower Seagoe	0 5 0
Mr. T. H. Gordon, Ballinacor	0 2 6
Mr. Wm. Simpson, Carne	0 2 0
Mr. G. Connolly, Carne	0 3 0

£2 2 6

During the past month the Hon. Treasurer sent a cheque for £180 to the Representative Church Body to reduce the loan outstanding on the new rectory, which means that our debt to them now stands at £820 instead of £1,000, the original sum borrowed.

The sum paid off was obtained thus:—Mothers' Union contribution £100, and £80 being the balance in the Building Fund account received from subscriptions after paying the half-yearly instalments, etc., due up-to-date. The members of the Mothers' Union are to be congratulated on realising such a substantial sum as a result of their efforts.
