ROLL OF HONOUR.

The sympathy of the whole community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. T. Martin on the tragic death of their only son, Henry, while on operational duties with the R.A.F. On the outbreak of war, Henry volunteered for service in the R.A.F., leaving behind him a safe position in the Bank, a position of comfort, and one which held in store for him good prospects of promotion, but for him these things faded into insignificance when the call of duty came; he, like many another hero of the skies has given his young life, that we might be saved from the ravages of the "Hun." In the words of Rupert Brooke, who himself gave his young life in the World War of 1914-18:

"These laid the world away; poured out the red
Sweet wine of youth; gave up the years to be
Of work and joy, and that unhop'd serene,
That men call age, and those who would have been
Their sons, they gave, their immortality."
The Rev. W. F. Hayes rightly paid a high tribute to Henry's sterling character at the morning service in the Parish Church on Sunday, Oct. 5th, and at Drumgor Harvest Festival on Oct. 12th, where he had been at Sunday School for many years.

As we mourn his passing from our sight, we thank God for his example of courage and self-sacrifice, and pray that Almighty God will sustain and comfort those who were near and dear to him.

"For those we love within the veil,
Who once were comrades of our way,
We thank Thee, Lord, for they have won
To cloudless day;
And life for them is life indeed,
The splendid goal of earth's strait race;
And where no shadows intervene
They see Thy face." (Irish Church Hymnary, 755).

WE WILL HELP TO RESTORE WHAT HITLER HAS TRIED TO DESTROY.

The above heading should be our motto for the first week of December, when every wage earner in the parish will be given an opportunity of taking a share in lightening the burden of our sister parishes in Belfast, which have suffered so severely in air-raids. Many parishes have been disorganised by the bombing of their people's homes, and the evacuation, which had to be carried out. The very existence of their parochial life is threatened, if they do not receive outside aid to keep the machinery going, until such times as more normal conditions arrive. Every parish in the United Dioceses is taking steps to alleviate those in distress. We are confident that Seagoe will not lag behind others in such a worthy cause, and the Select Vestry has chosen the first week in December as the most suitable time in which to make the appeal. On Sunday, Nov. 30th there will be an opportunity of hearing two Belfast Rectors, whose Churches suffered in the raids, the Rev. R. H. White, M.A., of Trinity Church, in the morning, and the Rev. S. P. Kerr, B.A., Rector of St. Mary's, Crumlin Rd., at the evening service.

HARVEST SERVICES.

DISTRICT SERVICES.

These annual popular events have taken place in Hacknahay, Carne, Levaghery, Drumgor, Bocombra, and Edenderry. These Halls were, as usual, tastefully decorated by their Superintendents and teachers, and we are grateful to the following for preaching at the Monday evening services at the forementioned places:—Revs. J. F. M'Alister, G. A. Guthrie, C.C. Browne, T. F. Gowing, A. Noble and D. F. Simmons.

PARISH CHURCH.

Crowded congregations greatly appreciated the special harvest music rendered by the choir, and we take this opportunity of congratulating the organist and choir on their splendid effort. Two anthems, "All Thy works Praise Thee" and "Sing unto God" were sung, the solo portions being taken by Mrs. G. Bird and Miss N. K. Montgomery, respectively, while at the evening services a quartet, composed of Miss N.

K. Montgomery, Miss A. M'Dougall and Messrs. H. Watson and F. Brown, based on Psalm 23, was most appropriate and effective.

We are grateful to all who sent material for the decorations, and especially to Messrs. M'Gredy, per Mr. A. M'Loughlin, for the loan of baskets, etc., which simplified the work of decorating considerably. We would also like to thank those who assisted in arranging the flowers, etc.

Three inspiring sermons were preached by the Rev. F. H. Kinch, M.A., the Rev. C. J. M'Leod and the Right Rev. J. Hind, D.D.

SIDSMEN FOR NOVEMBER.

Morning Prayer—The Churchwardens, Messrs. D. F. Stoops, James Twinem, R. Scott, W. R. Sherman.

Evening Prayer—Messrs. N. Campbell, H. A. Cathcart, Thos. Stanfield, H. Ellis, Wm. Hewitt.

LEVAGHERY SUNDAY SCHOOL.

At a social evening held recently in the School-room, Mr. T. Stanfield was presented, on behalf of the Sunday School, with a beautiful Scofield Reference Bible suitably inscribed, on the occasion of his retirement from the position of Superintendent. After a sumptuous tea, the Rector presided and paid a tribute to Mr. Stanfield's long and faithful service. The gift was handed over by Mr. E. Gibson. Mr. W. H. Best, who has been appointed Superintendent, joined in the felicitations. Mr. Stanfield suitably replied, and the rest of the evening was spent in games.

CHOIR SOCIAL.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in Seagoe School on Tuesday, Oct. 21st, when the members of the choir met to make presentations to three members. The Rector presided, and after complimenting the organist and choir on the Harvest Festival music, called upon Mr. N. Hamilton, organist, to hand over on behalf of the choir, a tea set to Mrs. G. Bird, and a cake stand to Mrs. Myrtle Courtney as tokens of their good wishes on the occasion of their recent marriages; Miss S. Kearns received a Hymn Book and Prayer Book in a case for her sister, Miss Betty Kearns, who recently has gone to Stranmillis Training College, and who was a regular and valued choir member. The reciipients suitably replied. We congratulate all three; they are worthy of the honour showed them. After tea, the usual popular games were enthusiastically played by the choir members and their friends until it was time to break up.

ARMISTICETIDE.

Sunday, November 9th, will be observed as a day of Remembrance and Dedication in connection with those who fell in the World War of 1914-18. The collection at 11.30 a.m. will be given, as usual, to the Earl Haig Poppy Day Fund, and after the service there will be a short memorial service at the War Memorial Gates.

MOTHERS' UNION.

The monthly meeting took place in Seagoe School on Oct. 9th, when an appropriate address was given by the Rev. G. Long.

The next meeting will take place in Seagoe School on Thursday, November 13th, at 3.30 p.m., when it is hoped that Mrs. Noble, of Lurgan, will speak.

BEETLE DRIVE.

A most successful "Beetle Drive" was held in the Orange Hall, Bridge St., on Oct. 2nd, in aid of the Parochial Hall Funds, which raised £12 3s 11d net, made up as follows:—Sale of tickets, £13; subscriptions, 13s 6d. Expenses—Hire of Hall, etc., £1 9s 7d.

The prizes were presented by Miss Atkinson; Miss Cox; the Rev. W. F. Hayes; Mr. R. M'Clements; Mr. Chas. Montgomery; and Mr. D. F. Stoops, to whom the committee are grateful. At the close of the evening Miss I. Atkinson handed over the prizes to the successful competitors.

Miss Cox (Hon. Sec. and Treas.) gratefully acknowledges the following subscriptions:—The Rector, 5/-; Mr. J. Dermott, 5/-; Mr. G. Leake, 2/6; Mr. D. Stevenson, 1/-. Our best thanks are due to members of the Committee, who provided milk, tea, sugar and the sandwiches.

W.F.O. HON. SEC'S. QUARTERLY RETURNS.
