The Confirmation.

On Friday evening, June 22nd, at 8 p.m., the ord Bishop of Down and Connor and Dromore the Right Rev. C. T. P. Grierson, D.D.) held Confirmation in the Parish Church. Before le Service began the Bishop inspected the lagoe and Carne Companies of the Seagoe L.B., which were drawn up on the road in ont of the Church, under the command of aptain Mitchell and Lieut. Walter Currie. Iter the inspection the Bishop addressed the ids and complimented them on their smartness ad efficiency. The Bishop then entered Seagoe chool, where the candidates for Confirmation tere assembled and spoke a few kindly words them. Then a procession was formed, headed with the Bishop and the Rector, which went across othe Church, the boys coming first and the girls blowing. A large crowd lined the path of the **Document of the Bishop acknowledged the relectful welcome of the people. In the Church le girls occupied the pews in front of the pulpit, d the boys the pews in front of the Lectern. here were altogether 82 candidates—42 boys nd 40 girls. The Bishop entered the Church by West door, the Rector acting as his Chapin. The Rev. W. F. Hayes, in front, carried le Pastoral Staff. The Service began with the nging of Hymn 232, "Holy Spirit, Lord of During the singing of the Hymn the ishop and clergy entered the Church. When Bishop had taken the chair placed at the hancel steps he called on the Rector to read the reface to the Confirmation Service. ishop then addressed the candidates, dwelling the importance of Confirmation and the need a thorough knowledge of the Creed, the Ten <sup>0m</sup>mandments and the Lord's Prayer, which Irmed the basis of the Church Catechism. The ishop then asked the candidates to stand, and he put to them the four questions in the Service. The candidates answered clearly each question. The congregation then stood while the Versicles were read, and then all knelt while the Bishop offered prayer. The candidates then came forward, the boys being first confirmed. Two candidates knelt at a time before the Bishop and were confirmed. After the Confirmation the Bishop gave a second address to the newly-confirmed. He exhorted them to be regular in their private prayers and in the reading of the Bible, also to attend Church regularly and to partake, at frequent intervals, of the Holy Communion. They must, he added, always take their stand on the side of Righteousness and Truth. After the Bishop's address Hymn 712, "Take my life and let it be," was sung, all kneeling, after which the Bishop said the closing prayers, and the Service concluded. Hymn 585, "O Jesu I have promised," was sung at the close of the Service. During the Service the Church was crowded. Mr. T. H. Wilson presided at the organ, and the choir led the singing. # The Somme Anniversary.

On Sunday, July 1st, special Services of Remembrance will be held in the Parish Church in remembrance of those who fell on July 1st, 1916, at Hamel, and also of all from our midst who made the great sacrifice during the War. The names of our fallen heroes will be read out at Morning Prayer. At Evening Prayer there will be a Parade of the C.L.B. The offerings at both services will be on behalf of the Co. Armagh Protestant Orphan Society. This Society is deserving of liberal support. It has given great and continued help to this Parish. The widow and the orphan have looked to it in their time of deep distress and have never failed to receive help. The Society has recently been in financial difficulties. It is the duty of every member of the Church to see that its funds are well supported and that the bereaved and fatherless receive the help they so much need.

July Anniversary Service.

On Sunday, July 8th, at 7 p.m., an Anniversary Service will be held in Seagoe Parish Church. The preacher will be the Rev. Canon M'Garvey, M.A., Rector of the Cathedral Parish of Dromore. Places will be reserved for the members of Lodges attending the Service. The collection will be on behalf of the Lord Enniskillen Memorial Orphan Fund.

Consecration Postponed.

At the request of the Lord Bishop the Consecration of the new Burial Ground at Seagoe was postponed. It had been announced to take place on Friday, June 22nd. The plot of ground is vested in the members of the Select Vestry of 1932 as individual trustees. The Bishop is anxious that it should be vested in a Corporate Body such as the Representative Church Body, in which almost all Church property is vested. Individual trustees may leave the Parish or pass away and if their places are not filled the tenure of the land may be rendered insecure. In the case of a Burial ground it is essential that the security of tenure be absolute.

The Excursion.

Thursday, June 14th, was a great day for Seagoe. At 8.30 a.m. the bands and childre assembled at the Parish Church. It was a splen did morning and a larger number of childre were present than for years past. A short Ser vice was held in the Church and then the procession was formed, headed by the Ballyhanno Band. The C.L.B. Band headed the Edender Sunday School. The train started for Warren point at 9.55 and after a speedy run we reache our objective. The first refreshment was at 1 and it was much enjoyed, the ham sandwiche were very good. The party then scattered Some paddled and some bathed. Some went Carlingford and some to Rostrevor. climbed to Cloughmore and some only got as f as Fiddler's Green. Everyone enjoyed the lovely scenery and the fresh air. At 5 gathered for the second refreshment in the St tion Pavilion. Just then some rain fell but n body minded it, the day had been so fine an pleasant. At 8.35 the return train started f Portadown. Great crowds awaited us, at headed by the C.L.B. Band we marched to the Parish Church. Cheers were given for the Kin and the Rector thanked all those who ha helped to make the day so pleasant. It is ve important that any of the ticket sellers who has Railway tickets unsold should return them once to Mr. R. Scott or to Mr. M'Clements.

C.L.B. Sports.

A splendid programme has been arranged f the C.L.B. sports, which are to take place Mrs. Wm. Best's field (most kindly lent for t occasion) on Thursday, July 5th, at 4 p.m. T field is in Church Lane, just off the Lurgan Roa It is beautifully situated. Inton-June 10th, 1934, David Thornton, of Edenderry, aged 81 years. Interred at Drumcree.

dshaw—June 21st, 1934, James Bradshaw, of Breagh, aged 85 years.

rrell—June 23rd, 1934, William Sinclair Burrell, of Portadown, aged 3½ years.

Sympathy.

We desire to express our sincere sympathy those who during the past month have fered bereavement in the loss of their dear Mrs. Sarah Jane Best passed to her mal rest at a great age. Up to within a short e of her death her memory remained quite R. She could remember the days of the Great nine of 1847. She was always devotedly athed to the Church of her Baptism and appreted greatly the ministrations of the clergy ing her last illness. David Thornton passed with startling suddenness. Although advanced in years he was very active up to the moment of his death. He had just returned from receiving his Old-Age Pension at the Post Office when he collapsed and died. He was well known and highly respected in Edenderry and was one of its oldest residents. The death of James Bradshaw, of Breagh, removes from our midst one who was greatly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. He bore with great patience and confident faith his years of weakness. At the end the call came to him suddenly as he was seated in his chair. The death of little William Sinclair Burrell at the age of 31 years was very sad. He was just entering on life when God called him to the higher life. The sadness of these farewells is softened by the thought that the parting is not for ever. Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you."

Mothers at Stormont.

Seagoe Mothers' Union had a splendid excursion on Thursday, June 21st. They left the Parochial Hall at 1.45 p.m. in two large 'buses. The drive to Belfast and Stormont was most enjoyable. We arrived at the great building at 3.25 and were met by Major Shillington, M.P., Mr. Johnston, M.P., and Mrs. Shillington. The party, 70 in number, divided up into 3 sections. each of which was brought by the attendants through all parts of the splendid building. House of Commons and the Senate House were especially admired. After we had seen everything we ascended in lifts to the Dining Rooms at the top of the buildings, where a sumptuous tea awaited us. This repast was most kindly and generously provided by Major Shillington and Mr. Johnston. Full justice was done to the good things provided, and when tea was over the Rector, on behalf of the Mothers, proposed a hearty vote of thanks to Major and Mrs. Shillington and Mr. Johnston. Major Shillington and Mr. Johnston, in replying, expressed their great pleasure at having the mothers with them and wished the Seagoe Mothers' Union every success. The party then inspected the striking monument of Lord Carson, and then mounting the 'buses drove to Bellevue to see the new "Zoo." Unfortunately, fog and rain somewhat interfered, but the monkeys, lions and tigers were of great interest to the visitors. A splendiddrive home completed a very enjoyable day's outing.

Congratulations.

We very heartily congratulate the Rev. G. H. Daunt and Mrs. Daunt on their Golden Wedding. They have hosts of friends in Seagoe and 'Muckley. We wish them many further years of prosperity and happiness in our midst. Their hospitality and kindness are a household word in this neighbourhood.

The Jumble Sale.

This sale, held on Friday, June 1st, proved very successful. The stalls in the Parochial Hall were crowded with clothing, boots, books, vegetables, etc. Buyers pushed in eagerly to secure early bargains, with the result that practically everything was sold in a brief space. The nett receipts amounted to £9 9s 8½d. £6 of this goes to the deficit on the Edenderry Sunday School Prize Fund and the balance to Seagoe School Expenses Fund.

Old Seagoe Notes.

The Norsemen in Seagoe.—Traces of Norse colonisation survive in names of families as well as places. Of names familiar in Seagoe are the following of Scandinavian origin. Tuft (Norse, Toft a homestead), Hull (pronounced Hool), Waring (derived from the Norse guard in Constantinople known as the Varangians, Lough or McLoughlin (Lochlann is the ancient na of Norway), Kirby, Gates (Norse, geit), Loc (from Loki a Norse hero), Oliver (Norse, Olafu The following words in common use in Parish to the present day are of Norse or Dar origin. Reek (smoke), squak (to shout), slit (to slide), spell (a share in work), blather (n sense), quern (a grinding stone), till (mean "to"), ar (a scar), handsel (a first purchas flit (remove), stour (dust), kitling (a you cat).

The Norse and Danish invaders continued the raids throughout the ninth century. The burned Bangor in 823, Movilla in 824 and magh in 933. The Clan of the O'Neills who habited the district now covered by Sea Parish were the only native tribes who refu to submit to the Norse invaders. A tradit survives that on March 28th, 941, a great bat was fought at Drumlisnagrilley between Blad the son of Godfrid, son of Ivar, son of Rag Lodbrog and Murchard (son of Nial Glendul Prince of Aileach of the Sept of the O'Nei Murchard was defeated and slain. Until recen the remains of a fort or earthwork could be s in the lower end of the townland of Drumlis grilley. This townland is situated in the pres Parish of Seagoe.
