Seagoe War Memorial Centenary

History is truly amazing. As someone who loves history, I find the opportunity it affords us to feel connected to the past, and to learn from it, really is a gift. At the start of the summer I had the wonderful opportunity, and privilege, to mark a significant moment in the history of Seagoe Parish, as we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the dedication of the war memorial pillars and gate, situated at the front of the church. There was a real sense of the weight of history as we gathered at the front of the church on a sunny Saturday in June. The memorial had been dedicated on Sunday 19th June 1921, with the ceremonies led by the Archdeacon of Connor, Ven. H. R. Brett, who preached at the morning service and was present at the act of dedication in the afternoon. The parish magazine article for the event is a fascinating read, and it tells us of the events of that day. One interesting point I noted was that these events drew a crowd numbering thousands! We are so blessed in our parish to have a record of such events through the Seagoe Parish magazine, and the article for this event can be viewed at www.seagoearchives.uk, where you will find an amazing treasure of articles that give us a link to our past.

Our gathering was a little smaller in number than that first dedication a hundred years ago, yet our time together was no less significant. We had two readings; John 15: 9-17, a familiar reading

Some of those gathered for the centenary, including local veterans and members of our Church Lads' Brigade, who read the names from the Roll of Honour often used at our Remembrance Day services; and from the apocrypha, Ecclesiasticus 44: 1-15, which was not only the text the archdeacon had preached on that day 100 years ago, but verse 14 is also inscribed on the pillars: 'Their name liveth for evermore'. Alongside the scripture readings, the magazine article from 100 years ago was read out, which gave those gathered a sense of events on that day, and the parish Roll of Honour was read by members of our Church Lads Brigade and local veterans. Following this there was an Act of Remembrance and prayers, concluding with an Act of Dedication from our Service of Remembrance. We were also blessed to have a piper and a bugler, who played during the Act of Remembrance.

It was incredible to reflect on that day 100 years ago. I marvel at how different our world is, yet also how similar it is to the world then. We all share the same hopes for a world at peace, where we remember those who have gone before us (and indeed who have laid down their lives so that we might enjoy the freedoms we have). We, like those people who gathered 100 years ago, look to the future and wonder what might be. They had emerged from a global conflict with optimism for the future. We too are emerging from a time of great uncertainty and worry, and we are reminded by the example of those who went before us of the importance of not only remembering what has been, but of looking ahead to what might be, in hopeful expectation and gratitude to God.

One of the Memorial pillars with names from the Roll of Honour, and a wreath, which was laid during the Act of Remembrance

As a parish we are indebted to those who helped organise and take part in this event, and a special mention should be given to Philip Morrison for his role in organising the day. We wonder what the world might look like at the 200th anniversary of the dedication, and might any of us be there on that day?!

Fellowship Groups

We are delighted that with the easing of Covid restrictions we are able to gather in the Parish Centre for Fellowship Groups. We commenced the season on Wednesday 22nd September at 7.30pm and are planning to meet each week. Participants are asked to wear facecoverings and to sit observing social distancing. Despite these measures it has been so encouraging to meet together and study the scriptures. Our studies this term are a continuation of the Lyfe series from The Bible Society which we ran in previous terms.

In addition to the 'in-person' meeting we commenced an on-line Fellowship Group on Tuesday 21st September via Zoom. Having benefitted from the ability to meet in this way over the past year when Covid restrictions prevented us from meeting together, those taking part are very content with the ability to meet in this manner.

Anyone who would like to take part is encouraged to come along to the Parish Centre on Wednesday evenings, or to e-mail terence@seagoe.co.uk so that we can send the necessary Zoom link each week.

Link with Ardmore Parish

It is now five years since Bishop Harold appointed me as Bishop's Curate of Ardmore Parish. Initially the licence was for two years, but at the end of that period the Bishop renewed my licence for a further three years. Throughout this period the staff of Seagoe have joined with me in offering ministry to the Parishioners of Ardmore Parish, and for that I thank them most sincerely. The link has been mutually beneficial in enabling each parish to participate in the life of the other and so to be blessed by one another. It was so encouraging to see parishioners joining together for such events as Harvest Thanksgivings, Carol Services, prayer meetings, bible studies, fundraising events and occasionally at regular Church services.

Unfortunately Covid has had its impact on both parishes and upon our link. From Ardmore's point of view Seagoe was delighted to be able to offer online worship, DVDs and CDs of services, thus enabling the majority of Ardmore parishioners to have an ongoing worship opportunity that otherwise would probably not have been possible for them.

As we continue to work our way out of Covid I have taken the difficult decision to ask Bishop David not to renew my licence at the end of August. Primarily I am concerned that both parishes will require a lot of effort to help us rebuild in moving forward and so I do not think we can adequately provide the necessary leadership for both parishes with our current resources. I consider that my primary calling is to Seagoe Parish and so I consider that my efforts must focus here, together with the staff of Seagoe. I am sorry that I believe we cannot adequately provide for Ardmore Parish in moving forward, but I pray that under God the Bishop will be directed as he seeks to put in place alternative arrangements for the benefit of Ardmore Parish.

It is also true to say that whilst ministering in Ardmore has been a privilege and has brought blessing, there have also been difficulties in Ardmore Parish that have caused me great concern and with regret I consider that these have not been able fully resolved.

We continue to give thanks for both parishes and ask God's blessing on them as they now go their separate ways again. - Terence

christian aid

Christian Aid collectors of our church have been delivering envelopes to people's homes for years which has been a amazing act of witness. With the Pandemic 2020 Christian Aid was cancelled. This year envelopes were distributed in church for the first. The outcome of this was very rewarding with the parishioners' support and generous giving. The amount raised - £2300 will help humanitarian relief for poor communities worldwide.

Thank you all Margaret and Patricia

Parish Archives

Our parish archives website seagoearchives.uk now has over 600 documents published. They have been searched over 6,000 times producing over half a million results! They include the earliest records from 1672 until a Vestry meeting on 4th May 1734 and all magazines from January 1906 until February 1942.

Original documents can be viewed as well as a transcript. We have plans to further develop the website. To transcribe the parish's historical documents means you will be uncovering parish history and making it available to anyone. If you can help please contact Philip Holland at philip@hi-systems.co.uk

Thankful Remembrance

For many years now we have held a service around All Saints' Day (1st November) where we have invited those who have been bereaved through the previous year to gather together to remember and give thanks for their loved ones. Last year we were unfortunately not able to offer this service due to covid restrictions, however we did hold a service to remember all those who died during the Covid pandemic. Due to ongoing covid restrictions we do not think we could adequately accommodate all who have been bereaved this year and so rather than hosting a service in Church we will post a service of Thankful Remembrance on Seago Parish YouTube on Sunday 7th November at 7pm.

Church re-opened for worship

Since Good Friday 2021, when the Assembly relaxed Covid restrictions, we have thankfully been able to gather again for worship in Church. We have offered a variety of services including a 9.00am Holy Communion once a month, the main service at 10.30am in Church, 10.45am Family Gathering in the Parish Centre (until the Summer break), and a 6.00pm evening service in St. Patrick's.

We are delighted that people have been attending all these services and that we have had to have an overflow into the Rotunda at the main services.

Increase in Services available

At the start of September we expanded the range of services we offer as follows:

- 9.00am Weekly since Sunday 12th September
- 10.30am The main service will continue with the overflow into the Rotunda. Sunday Light commenced on Sunday 26th September; children join with us for the first part of the service and then leave for Sunday Light in the Parish Centre.
- 6.00pm Weekly services in St. Patrick's Hall, Killicomaine.
- 7.00pm A monthly praise service was held on Sunday 19th September and will continue on the 3rd Sunday of the month in the Parish Centre.
- 7.00pm Weekly service held in our Church Plant, Killicomaine Community Church, in the Jubilee Centre, Killicomaine.

Wednesday Holy Communion

The Wednesday communion service was a very popular service with a dedicated group of participants meeting each week in the Quiet Room. Unfortunately we do not think the Quiet Room will adequately allow for social distancing for the administration of Communion and so initially we will meet on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of the month in the Church. When the weather becomes colder we will consider where best in the Parish Centre to hold these services.

Covid measures

In order to create as safe an environment as possible we will continue with the following measures at all services: Temperatures will be taken upon entry to the buildings; everyone is requested to wear facecoverings when entering and exiting the buildings and throughout worship; contact tracing details will be gathered; hand sanitiser will be available; people will be guided to socially distanced seating.

Mothers' Union

We were delighted that the Mothers' Union started back in the Parish Centre on Tuesday 14th September at 7.30pm. I'm so excited to let you know that we're now able to meet in person again. We have missed you! It has been very challenging trying to keep in touch during the height of the pandemic although we have sent cards and letters to our members.

Now that restrictions have eased and we start to ease back to a new normal, I would encourage our members and others in the parish to come along to our meetings. I can assure everyone that we have procedures in place to make sure you all feel safe and comfortable. The chairs will be socially distanced but we will still be close enough to chat to each other. It's time to meet our friends again, to meet new friends and relax in fellowship with others. I can promise you a very warm welcome and even a wee cuppa (if restrictions don't change). We can't give you our usual programme of the year ahead but normally we have speakers on a range of topics from local crafters, the work of local councillors and the outreach work of our members at home and overseas. We will have time to reflect on the past few months, how we have dealt with isolation, and time to look forward to a brighter future. During the pandemic Mothers Union has reached out in many different ways. Come along and hear the stories of some of our own members. You can find out more about the Mothers Union organisation at <https://www.mothersunion.org>

Next year our Mothers Union branch will be one hundred years old, an achievement we are very proud of. Come along and join us as we build up to a year of celebrations and reflections. Let's go forward together to celebrate a centenary built on a strong foundation and a bright future. Come along and join us, there's a warm welcome for you and why not bring a friend too.

Stay safe

PIC-COLLAGE

Rectory Wedding

Until recently, as far as we are aware, there has only been one Rectory bride, namely Michelle Shearer, daughter of Rev. & Mrs. Jack Shearer. On 27th July Hannah Cadden, eldest daughter of our current Rector and his wife Alison, left the Rectory to marry Aaron Abraham of Esky Road, Derryadd. Despite Covid restrictions the couple had a great day and wish to thank everyone for their warm wishes and the many generous gifts they received.

Confirmation 2021

This August, we were delighted to be able to host a confirmation service that saw 13 candidates confirmed by Bishop David.

In the strangeness of the year we've had, it was wonderful to gather in a safe way in church, with friends and family of the candidates, to support them as they publicly affirmed their faith. Although coronavirus did affect many things in the service, and the confirmation preparation which happened over the month of May, it was a powerful reminder that even in these strange times the work of God's kingdom continues.

Despite the restrictions that we faced, the evening was a wonderful time for the families of the candidates and for the widerchurch family. The candidates had an opportunity to meet with Bishop David before the service, and refreshments were provided. We give thanks to God for our confirmation candidates, and the opportunity to disciple young people in our parish. Continue to keep our young people in your prayers and pray especially for our confirmation candidates, Amelia, Matthew, Rachel, Roisín, Ben, Josh, Harry, Joe, Jackson, Daniel, Victoria, Emily and Jamie, as they continue on their journey as disciples of Jesus.

Going For Gold!

Congratulations to our first Gold participants to complete their expedition section of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. With no expeditions permitted in 2020 Keith, Edwina and Boyd were working double time to get a record number of young people to complete their expeditions in 2021. Not one, but two, groups completed a Gold expedition over four days in the Mourne Mountains in the hottest temperatures recorded in Northern Ireland. Three more groups completed Silver and two groups completed Bronze.

Seagoe Youth Group has 67 young people registered at all levels of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. We are delighted with the achievements of all our participants this year as they progress to the next level. If you are interested in participating or volunteering to assist with the delivery of DofE please contact Boyd McClurg by emailing boyd@seagoe.co.uk.

Thank You Volunteers

In the last week in June an enthusiastic team of volunteers spent many hours tidying around the church grounds. From trimming hedges, weeding, cleaning and tidying to washing windows, they all worked extremely hard and by the end of the week the grounds were looking immaculate. Thanks to the Council they provided plants which were carefully planted in the planters and are now in full bloom and have provided an array of colour. Thank you to everyone involved for devoting their time (and energy) to maintaining the church grounds and to Jeanette for providing the refreshments at the end of each evening. It is planned to have a similar clean-up in the autumn and we will require volunteers.

Philip

EXODUS TEAM

A huge thank you to Seagoe Parish Church for hosting Team 32 and partnering with us to serve the youth in the community. We are so grateful for the hospitality and support shown to us by the church. Our team had a fantastic time serving in both the kids club and the junior high youth club in Killicomaine.

At the Seagoe Youth Group Children Summer Scheme in the old school our team was really encouraged to see the kids interact and engage with us, and trust us from day one. Whether it was through organising big group games, smaller group activities or having positive conversations with them, we had so much fun getting to know each of them. We feel so blessed that we were able to do so alongside the brilliant staff team who were so welcoming to us.

It took the older youth a little bit longer to open up to us. However in pursuing that goal as a team and leaning on Jesus, we hope that we encouraged the young people of Killicomaine of how loved, valued and seen they are. By the end of the week we were hosting an interactive Murder Mystery event for them, in which we all played a character and they needed to solve the mystery - a classic 'who done it?' They all got stuck in and really enjoyed it. Prizes of waterguns made for a lot of fun and some soggy young people by the end of the evening.

Unfortunately, on the second day, the senior high didn't show up. Yet, this was a perfect example of God's ways being higher as this gave us an opportunity to have one-on-ones and good, testimony-filled conversations with the staff.

The passion and compassion of the staff that we had the privilege of working alongside was so admirable and we would like to thank Gareth in particular for organising this placement for us and being with us every step of the way. We have learned a lot as a team and hope that in the future we can come back to serve the community in Seagoe and the incredible people there.

Seagoe Youth Group

In April 2021 Seagoe Youth Group was successful in securing Education Authority funding for the next two years to deliver youth programmes according to an EA Specification. Outcomes of our youth delivery are designed to impact young people in positive ways as individuals and as part of society. Return to youth programmes after lockdown has been gradual with risk assessments in all areas of work adhering to Department of Education guidelines and PHA protocols. In the six months since April we have welcomed 286 children and young people into programmes at Killicomaine Youth Centre, Seagoe Old School and Trax. Drop-in sessions are open six nights a week, Monday to Saturday and young people have enjoyed the opportunity to meet with their friends again in the safety of our youth clubs.

Three weeks of Summer Scheme for Junior Youth Club was a real blast in July albeit with restrictions to our numbers. The programmes were packed each week with arts, crafts, beads, painting, running, jumping and plenty of games. Trips to the Cinema and the adventure park at We Are Vertigo made life feel like it was getting back to normal.

EA grants towards camping equipment and summer programmes also allowed our Senior Youth Club and Young Adult 14+ groups to have some fun too. Trips to Shannaghmore challenged our groups to face their fears of heights and water with some fantastic achievements made on the high ropes course, zipline and the raging waters of Bloody Bridge River. Belfast Activity Centre gave us the opportunity to go underground in the dark through their cave system and canoeing on the River Lagan. We even got the chance to try out go-karting, airsoft, camping, snowtubing and footgolf. How did we cram it all in?

September saw the continuation of our THINK Programme. This gives our members a chance to discuss issues that affect their lives growing up. Topics include positive mental health, digital resilience and social media, drugs and alcohol, bullying, social action, sport and fitness, equality, diversity and community relations. New members are always welcome. Follow us on Facebook at Seagoe Youth Group Portadown for more information on opening times for each age group.

So the Word became human and made his home among us. He was full of unending love and faithfulness. And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

(John 1:14)

The verse above is just a snippet from a passage in the Book of John and where we begin our new season of Youth Fellowship in 2021/2022.

With restrictions continuing to be in place most of this year, it has been another challenging year to continue the youth ministry and activities within our parish.

As we are now in a position to be able to gather, it will be good to have all the young people (11+) within our parish back at Youth Fellowship (safe and socially distanced) to have a time of fellowship with food, games, Bible study and banter!

This term we will be using a new resource developed by Youth officers within the Church of Ireland called 'The Jesus Sessions'. This will be an opportunity for the young people to be introduced to Jesus' life and ministry and help young people consider who Jesus is to them and how this impacts their lives.

The leaders are ready to welcome back the young people already involved in Youth fellowship but also encourage some new young people to come along and enjoy the time together and ask the parishioners to remember the Youth Fellowship in your prayers.

Seagoe Youth Fellowship will meet every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month, 7.00pm – 8.30pm in the Parish Centre. For further information please contact Stuart (stuart@seagoe.co.uk)

PARISH FINANCES

Thank you to all our parishioners who have continued to donate to Seagoe Parish, especially during the pandemic. For those of you who just love looking at lots of figures, our annual report and parish finances for 2018, 2019 and 2020 are published on the Charity Commission website www.charitycommission.org.uk. They are 21 pages long!

For everyone else, I suspect all you want to know is "Are our finances ok?" At the time of writing (August 2021) our management accounts to the end of July show that our income is £14,231 greater than our expenditure. However from September 2021 we will not receive any income from Ardmore (which is currently £21,855 a year).

One particularly interesting fact is that since the pandemic began more parishioners are choosing to donate by standing order rather than free will offering. The table below also shows the severe impact the pandemic had on FWO donations last year whereas SO donations have shown a steady growth.

Period	FWO	SO	Total
Jan to July 2019	£70,360 (70.6%)	£29,299 (29.4%)	£99,659 (100%)
Jan to July 2020	£38,193 (51.8%)	£35,515 (48.1%)	£73,709 (100%)
Jan to July 2021	£57,076 (56.2%)	£44,444 (43.8%)	£101,520 (100%)

FWO donations are welcome, however SO donations mean the parish has a relatively constant income, reduced administration and printing costs.

If you would like to donate by Standing Order you can do so by contacting your bank, either in person or by online banking. The parish bank account "Seagoe Parish" to be credited is Sort Code 981290 Account Number 33191057.

Should you have any queries please contact our Treasurer Philip Holland (Tel. 38339198 email philip@hisystems.co.uk) or the Rector.

Killicomaine Outreach

On Sunday 29 August our Outreach Worker, Jim Fleming, who leads our church plant in Killicomaine (Killicomaine Community Church) was ordained as a Presbyter by our Bishop of Down and Dromore. The event was held outdoors at CS Lewis Square in East Belfast. It was encouraging to see some Seagoe parishioners in attendance at the ordination and Terence was invited by the Bishop to take part in the service. We wish God's blessing upon Jim as he moves forward into this new sphere of ordained ministry.

As restrictions have now eased Killicomaine Community Church is planning to resume its ministries to help and reach out to the area. The Mens' and Women's Clubs are already back up and running and by early October plans are to restart the work with Christians Against Poverty in the form of the Job Club and Life Skills Course. An 'inperson' Alpha is also scheduled to start on Tuesday 5 October. Apart from the Mens' Club, all these initiatives willtake place in Killicomaine Community Centre.

Jim and his wife Janet have recently purchased a home in the estate and this will also be used for ministry and as a hub for people who are looking for help and especially spiritual direction.

GRAVEYARD

RE-REGISTRATION

Do you, your family, or anyone you know have family members buried in Seagoe Churchyard?

If so, you may not realise it, but every grave is registered to someone who will need to be consulted about any future burials in the plot. Often we find that the grave plot is actually registered to someone who is now deceased and so some issues can arise if a request is made to use the grave again. In order to try to bring our register up to date we are asking people to check the registration of their grave plot, and where necessary, to reregister the plot.

Thanks to the hard work of our Graves Registrar, Steven McCann, all our records are held on a very easily accessible computer program. With a few simple clicks of the mouse Steven can advise on the details we hold concerning each grave, including the name of the person the grave is registered to.

All requests for reregistration of a grave must be to a family member of the current title holder. If the current holder of the registration is still alive that person can sign this form on their own. If the current holder of the registration is deceased, then all relevant family members must sign this form to confirm their agreement to the proposed named family member for the reregistration. Reregistration should ideally be to a parishioner of Seagoe Parish, however if this is not the case some explanation should be provided as to why reregistration is requested to a non-parishioner.

If reregistration is required a simple form can be completed by family members and returned to Steven along with a nominal fee for reregistration.

To enable as many people as possible to engage with this important process Steven is setting aside three Saturday mornings in October when he will be available in the Parish Centre to check registration details. In order to avoid delays people are invited to book a 5 minute appointment slot at www.ticketsource.co.uk/seagoe For those who do not have access to a computer a slot can be booked for you by phoning the Parish Centre on 38350583

The Alpha Course

Our Alpha Course starts on Tuesday 5 October at 7.00pm in Killicomaine Jubilee Community Centre, but please feel to join us at any stage. Alpha is a fantastic way to discover what Christianity is all about. The course covers many topics including; Is there more to life than this? Who is Jesus? How can I have faith? How and why do I read the Bible? Does God still heal today? Who is the Holy Spirit? And more! Contact jim@seagoe.co.uk 07954 994 749
